

2006 Business Award Recipients

Advocate Homes

Graham Dewitt

5855 Wadsworth ByPass, Bldg B, #100
303-940-6567

Nominated by the Arvada Center for the Performing Arts for significant financial and personal contributions (board member of the Arvada Center), sponsor for the 30th Anniversary celebration, and was involved in the planning process for the addition to the Center.

Arvada Villa Pizzeria

James Gibson

9609 W 57th Place
303-422-2385

Made a significant difference in the lives of young people who worked at his restaurant by mentoring, teaching or befriending them. For almost 40 years the Arvada Villa has shaped productive leaders and involved members of the community. Jim has owned the business for 10+ years.

Chipotle Mexican Grill

Wyatt Bumford/Rusty Partch

12550 W 64th Avenue
303-432-1101

Nominated for their generosity to the community, including various organizations and local schools.

Culligan Construction

Dennis Culligan

303-420-5544
7507 Grandview Avenue

Nominated for commitment to quality historic restoration projects in Historic Olde Town Arvada, such as Steve's Meat Market, Yours Truly, and 7511 Grandview and involvement in the downtown community.

Curves for Women

June MacLennan, Teresa McCubbin and Virginia Nigg

7705 Wadsworth Blvd, #E 303-422-8900
6480 Ward Road
303-467-2776

Made significant contributions to the Arvada Food Bank.

Joe Jehn – 2006 Lloyd J. King Entrepreneurial Spirit Award
Jehn & Associates, Inc.
303-403-2415
5855 Wadsworth ByPass, Bldg A, #100

ProtoMED, Inc.
Connie Cameron
5310 Ward Road, G07
303-422-2207
Provided generous and numerous charitable contributions.

The Duck Company
Jim Bruno
303-423-5630
5601 Gray Street
Created 100 new primary jobs in Arvada, and made a significant investment in the purchase and renovation of its building.